FIRST DAY AT THE WHEEL OF THE CRUZE IN VALENCIA FOR YVAN MULLER

New Chevrolet Driver And Rob Huff On A Two-Day Test Session In Spain

VALENCIA, 11th January 2010 - New Chevrolet driver and former WTCC World Champion Yvan Muller today drove the Chevrolet Cruze for the first time in 2010 during a test session in Valencia. The French driver, who has joined Alain Menu and Rob Huff to form one of the most interesting driver line-ups in the 2010 WTCC, will continue testing tomorrow on the Spanish track together with Rob Huff.

Yvan's first comments about the Cruze and his new team were very positive: "I am still discovering the Cruze but can already tell it is a car with an excellent basis and a good potential for further growth. The team looks extremely professional and I am very pleased with the way we are working here in Valencia".

A full report on the Valencia test will be issued on Wednesday.
